TAM welcomes SprintAir Saab 340s for major checks

Örebro, Sweden: Täby Air Maintenance, TAM, has signed a contract with SprintAir of Warsaw, Poland, for major checks on their full cargo converted Saab 340s.

The first of three aircraft is due to arrive in TAM's main overhaul facility at Örebro airport in mid-August, where the other aircraft will arrive during the autumn.

- With SprintAir being a long term customer, I am glad to see we once again have been trusted with a series of major checks and overhauls on their pristine fleet of Saab 340s, says Pär Gulle, TAM Managing Director.
- This recent agreement is a valuable sign of confidence in the partnership with one of our premier partners, as we also some years ago did the conversion of some of their Saab 340s to cargo configuration.
- We are proud to be a long-term partner to SprintAir and see that we continue to consolidate our position as the globally leading Saab 340/Saab 2000 service partner, Pär Gulle summarizes.
